

Administration

Staff Advisory Functions

In the development of rules, regulations, and arrangements for the operation of the school district, the Superintendent shall include at the planning stage, whenever feasible, those employees who will be affected by such provisions.

The Superintendent shall evolve channels with professional and non-professional employees for the ready inter-communication of ideas and feelings regarding the operation of the school district. He/she shall weigh with care the counsel given by employees and shall, as appropriate, inform the Board of Education of such counsel in presenting reports of administrative action and in presenting recommendations for Board of Education action.
